Nu Jazz, Lounge and a Lucky Number: DPI Collection vol. 13

After magenta (DPI 11) and graphite grey (DPI 12), the new DPI Collection 13 – again compiled by Cologne’s DJ Ralph Rosenbaum – appears as a fresh skyblue „Summer Edition“. With sure touch RR has threaded sixteen swinging Lounge, sexy (Nu) Jazz and Chillout-Grooves beads on a 70 minutes-long musical string, containing at least a half dozen very nice surprises.

Things start off with a good ‚old‘ friend whom we’ve heard on several DPI collections: the internationally appreciated crooner Louie Austen from Vienna singing about the „Summerwind“; closely followed by jazz-legend Artie Shaw and his swinging version of „La Paloma“. Shaw is followed by DEPHAZZ. Together with the HR (Hessischer Rundfunk) Bigband, they breathe an impressive whiff of ballroom into their astonishing track „Something Special“. The highly talented Bajka brings us twofold pleasure: In cooperation with Sola Rosa she sings the catchy Electro-Swing tune „Humanised“ and hardly thirty minutes later she teaches us „The Beaver’s Lesson“ in a reggae-flavored remix by Mop Mop. Meanwhile, things can be let loose for instance with Club Des Belugas, HP Hoeger und Levent Canseven alias Can 7 feat. Angela Caran.

Rosenbaum has a notorious weakness for well-done cover-versions. This time contributed by Nils Landgren („Thank You For The Music“), Zofka („Parole, Parole“) and – outstanding highlight – Rick Braun with his fabulous version of „Walk On The Wild Side“. No one interprets the term „Lounge“ in a wider sense than the Cologne DJ, and his mix of (Electro) Swing, Rumba and Bossa paired with Drum ‚N‘ Bass, trendy Chill-Out Grooves as well as Nu Jazz, Downbeat and nostalgic South Sea sounds asks to dance and dream in the most gentle way.

The luxurious DigiPak with motives from the DPI Showroom provides a classy visual frame for this high quality collection. Like its predecessor, DPI Collection vol 13 will also be available in all major download stores.

Background info: Ralph Rosenbaum was also responsible for the compilation Aural Affair Vol.1 as well as (as a co-compiler together with Christian Arndt) the project Jazz Lounge Christmas for peacelounge’s sister company local media.
