CAPE TOWN 2 AM [vol 2] approaching dawn

Cape Town 2am - Approaching Dawn yields a diverse selection of electronica, house, eclectic beats, rare grooves and break beats for a fine assortment of home-grown, down-tempo grooves from South Africa. Delphi Affair, Felix Laband, Max Normal and Anti Hero re-surface on this fantastic new compilation, joined by a host of new producers and musicians such as Oto Plasma, Julian Furman, Nix, Café Malvern, Mind of a Shark, Shallow Deep, Beifus and E-Quad. Pops Mohamed, a.k.a. The Futurist, makes his debut on the label with "Ma Yeah", a track inspired by his time spent with the Khoisan. The inclusion of Louis Mhlanga - whose long time collaboration with Dutch Bass player Eric van der Western and dance outfit E-Quad yielded the eclectic, guitar-driven "An Other Man" - is another first for the label. Mhlanga's mesmerizing Shona lyrics and enticing voice make for a sexy fusion of cultures. Jazz guitarist Johnny Fourie collaborates with son Sean and producer Brendon Le Roux (The Original Evergreen) on Café Malvern for a slight touch of acid jazz. Cape Town 2am - Approaching Dawn is everything you want to hear at 2 a.m. anywhere in the world.
